

COLLEGE FACULTY

2nd Annual Symposium

Quality Education and Academic Freedom in Ontario Colleges

Friday, June 7, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m

Oakham House, Ryerson University

A participatory exploration of the relationship between quality of education and academic freedom; control of our work; the chaotic expansion of online learning; outsourcing and P3s in the college system; and many other issues facing us as college faculty, staff and students.

Morning

Welcoming Remarks

Warren (Smokey) Thomas, President, OPSEU

Keynote speaker

James Turk, Executive Director, Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT)

Panel discussion

Representatives from CAAT Academic Locals facing issues like online learning, outsourcing (e.g. Mohawk College, Cambrian)

working lunch (provided by OPSEU)

Afternoon

Panel discussion

CAUT, Ontario Council of University Faculty Associations (OCUFA), Canadian Federation of Students (CFS) representatives will focus on differing perspectives on academic freedom, college-university partnerships, students' concerns regarding quality of education

World Café

on defining academic freedom; online learning and workload; non-full-time faculty and precarious work;
how we build a campaign; laying the groundwork for bargaining 2014

Lunch will be provided. There is no fee, but registration is limited. To register, call or email Mary-Anne Di Adamo, Campaigns Department. Email: mdiadamo@opseu.org. Tel: 416 443 8888, 8664/1 800 268 7376, ext. 8664 or FAX: 416 443 1762

Delta Chelsea has rooms set aside. Please quote CAAT SYMPOSIUM at 1800 243 5732 by May 7

EXPERTS IN STUDENT SUCCESS
SINCE 1967